Federal tax information

Enclosed with this notice is Form 1099-DIV and instructions for reporting the information from the form on your 2024 federal income tax return.

Income from U.S. government securities

Distributions paid from interest earned on U.S. government or government-guaranteed obligations may be exempt from state tax. None of the funds listed below meet the threshold requirements for government income in the states of California, Connecticut, or New York. Check with your tax advisor regarding taxation in your state. To arrive at the amount that may be exempt from state or local tax, multiply the amount shown in Box 1a, Total ordinary dividends, on Form 1099-DIV by the applicable percentages from the chart below.
